WHAT THE COURSE IS ABOUT

Love the idea of planning arts events or working in galleries, museums, performing arts, or heritage organisations? The Diploma in Arts Business Management (ABM) is what you are looking for! With ABM, you will cultivate an appreciation for various creative art forms – ranging from theatre and music, to dance and visual arts – and gain the business and management skills to thrive in and contribute to the growth of these sectors.

The Business of the Arts

To give you a solid foundation, you will be introduced to business and management skills that will equip you with skills to manage, market and finance arts and heritage organisations. Learn how to conduct research on cultural audiences, use digital media to market your event to different audience segments, develop sponsorship strategies, and organise festivals and events.

Real-world Learning

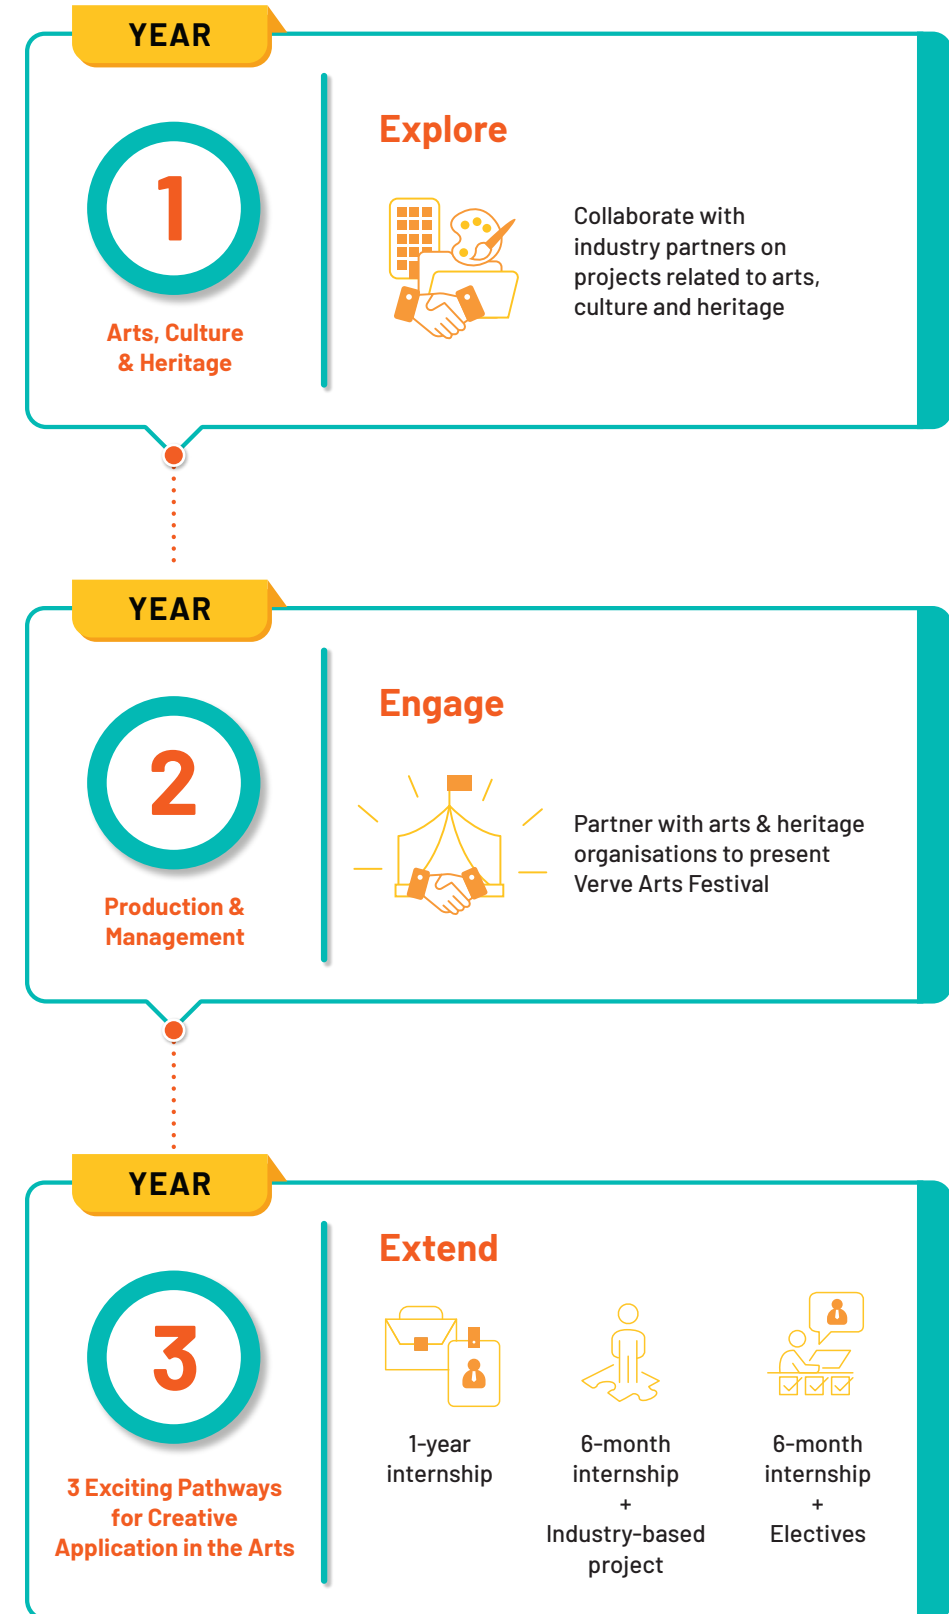

In your final year, opt for either a one-year internship, or a combination of a six-month internship and project work or elective modules. Work in the creative industry to conceptualise and execute business development plans and amass practical experience that will get you career-ready.

One of the highlights of your ABM journey is the opportunity to plan and organise Verve, an annual arts festival. Apply your skills and knowledge to plan and implement programmes, present arts and cultural performances, work with artists and volunteers, and ensure financial sustainability for the event.

Signature Industry Partnerships

Our tie-ups with renowned arts and heritage organisations such as the Singapore Art Museum, Arts House Limited and National Heritage Board will allow you to gain insights into the ins and outs of the local arts and heritage scene. Through industry visits and sponsored projects, prepare to learn from and get inspired by veterans of the arts, culture and heritage fields!

Diploma in

Chinese Media & Communication

Get latest updates on course

- ▶ The only bilingual media course that prepares you to be a next-gen content producer for a globalised world as well as regional Chinese-speaking markets
- ▶ Broad-based curriculum equips you with digital media skills for a wide range of platforms, widening career options
- ▶ Collaborate with leading industry partners such as Our Grandfather Story, Mediacorp and SPH Media for real-world learning
- ▶ One-year or six-month internship, project work or elective modules – Choose your learning journey in your final year!

WHAT THE COURSE IS ABOUT

Ever dreamt of entering the booming Chinese media industry in the region? With a myriad of social media platforms available, there is a growing demand for content creators and professionals.

If bilingualism is your forte, put your skills to good use with the Diploma in Chinese Media & Communication (CMC). You will be trained to become a versatile media professional capable of producing engaging content for a wide range of digital media platforms.

Build a Strong Foundation

Learn storytelling and presentation skills in both Chinese and English, as well as the fundamentals of the Chinese media business. Besides honing your skills in traditional media platforms, you will learn data analytics, digital marketing and user experience & interface (UX/UI) design to prepare you for today's dynamic media landscape. Get set to captivate the regional audience with compelling content via new media channels like Instagram, TikTok and Red (Xiaohongshu)!

Immersive Studio-Based Learning

Be career-ready for the media landscape with opportunities to collaborate with your peers and industry partners on real-world projects! Our hands-on training hones your skills and develops your confidence so you can thrive in the creative industries.

Industry Partnerships

Our close ties with leading industry partners will give you insights into how organisations create impactful brand stories. In your final year, choose a one-year internship to deepen real-world experience at top local media companies such as SPH Media, Mediacorp, Wawa Pictures, August Pictures and Our Grandfather Story. Or you can opt for a combination of a six-month internship and project work or elective modules to expand your skill sets.

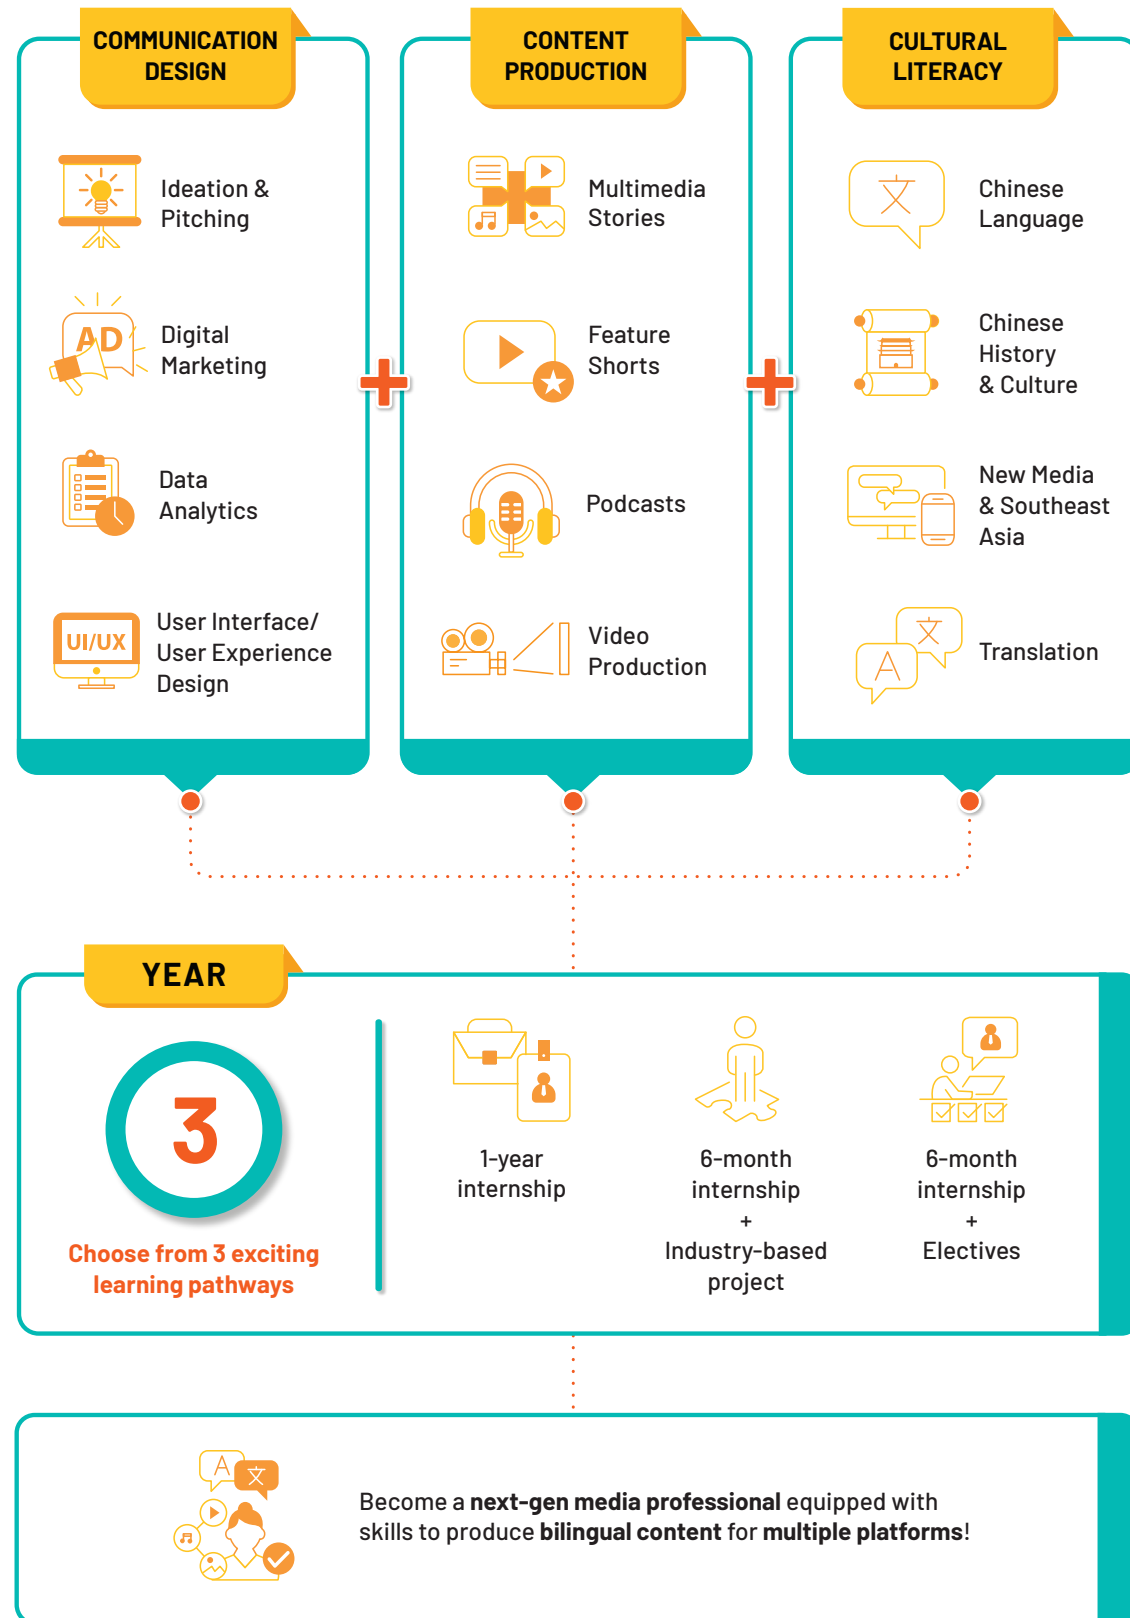

BREAKING THE CYCLE

Social project, InandOut 听说, combats verbal abuse among youths through more conscious and harmonious communication. Launched by a group of six final-year students, the project includes an immersive experiential programme where youths take on the perspective of a victim, abuser or by-stander, and are encouraged to reflect on and break the cycle of verbal abuse.

Diploma in Psychology & Community Development Revamped

Get latest updates on course

- ▶ A unique diploma that combines Psychology, Community Development and Social Sustainability
- ▶ Acquire the skills to be a social connector who brings businesses, communities and the public sector together
- ▶ Gain hands-on experience in co-creating sustainable solutions with corporates and communities to maximise the social impact of business decisions
- ▶ Choice of 3 specialisation tracks to expand your knowledge in these key social sectors: Youth, Seniors and Disabilities

WHAT THE COURSE IS ABOUT

Curious about psychology and human behaviour? Passionate about building an inclusive and sustainable society? If you are keen to use your understanding of human behaviour to shape society and create real impact for communities, our Diploma in Psychology & Community Development (PCD) will give you a head start!

Become a New-Gen Social Connector

Corporates around the world are making a positive impact on society and PCD prepares you to be the new-gen social connector with the skills to develop sustainable solutions that add value to both businesses and communities.

Through PCD, you will gain insights into the motivations, attitudes and social dynamics that influence human interactions. Additionally, you will gain an understanding of principles that guide businesses to make socially sustainable decisions. Your grasp of business needs and community issues will enable you to mobilise diverse stakeholders from the corporate and community sectors to create solutions that have long-term impact. With growing opportunities in the care economy, you can also play key roles in fostering community partnerships and enhancing human services.

Shaping Communities

In your first year, embark on the Community Kickstarter Programme, during which you will interact with different communities to understand their behavioural profile, as well as identify social and environmental factors that influence their behaviour and choices.

With a Behavioural Insights Bootcamp as the highlight of your second-year curriculum, you will hone the skills to draw from psychological and social science concepts to design effective programmes and policies. Under the mentorship of your lecturers and guidance from industry practitioners, you will learn how to apply your knowledge to meet real-world scenarios.

Choose from 3 Specialisations*

In your second year, depending on your area of interest, you can deepen your understanding in one of the three key sectors of the growing care economy:

- Youth: Acquire the skills to address the needs of youth-at-risk and the general youth population.
- Seniors: Understand the challenges faced by our seniors to develop programmes that facilitate active ageing.
- Disabilities: Gain perspectives on the world of persons with disabilities to co-create innovative solutions and raise awareness on inclusivity.

Customise Your Learning

In your final year, choose to go on a one-year internship or a six-month internship coupled with a Final-Year Project or elective modules. Our leading partners offering enriching internship opportunities include public sector agencies, private corporations, and social and community organisations such as Deloitte, Fei Yue Community Services, Metropolitan YMCA, Ministry of Family and Social Development, National Youth Council and Sodexo.

GROWING A CHANGEMAKER COMMUNITY

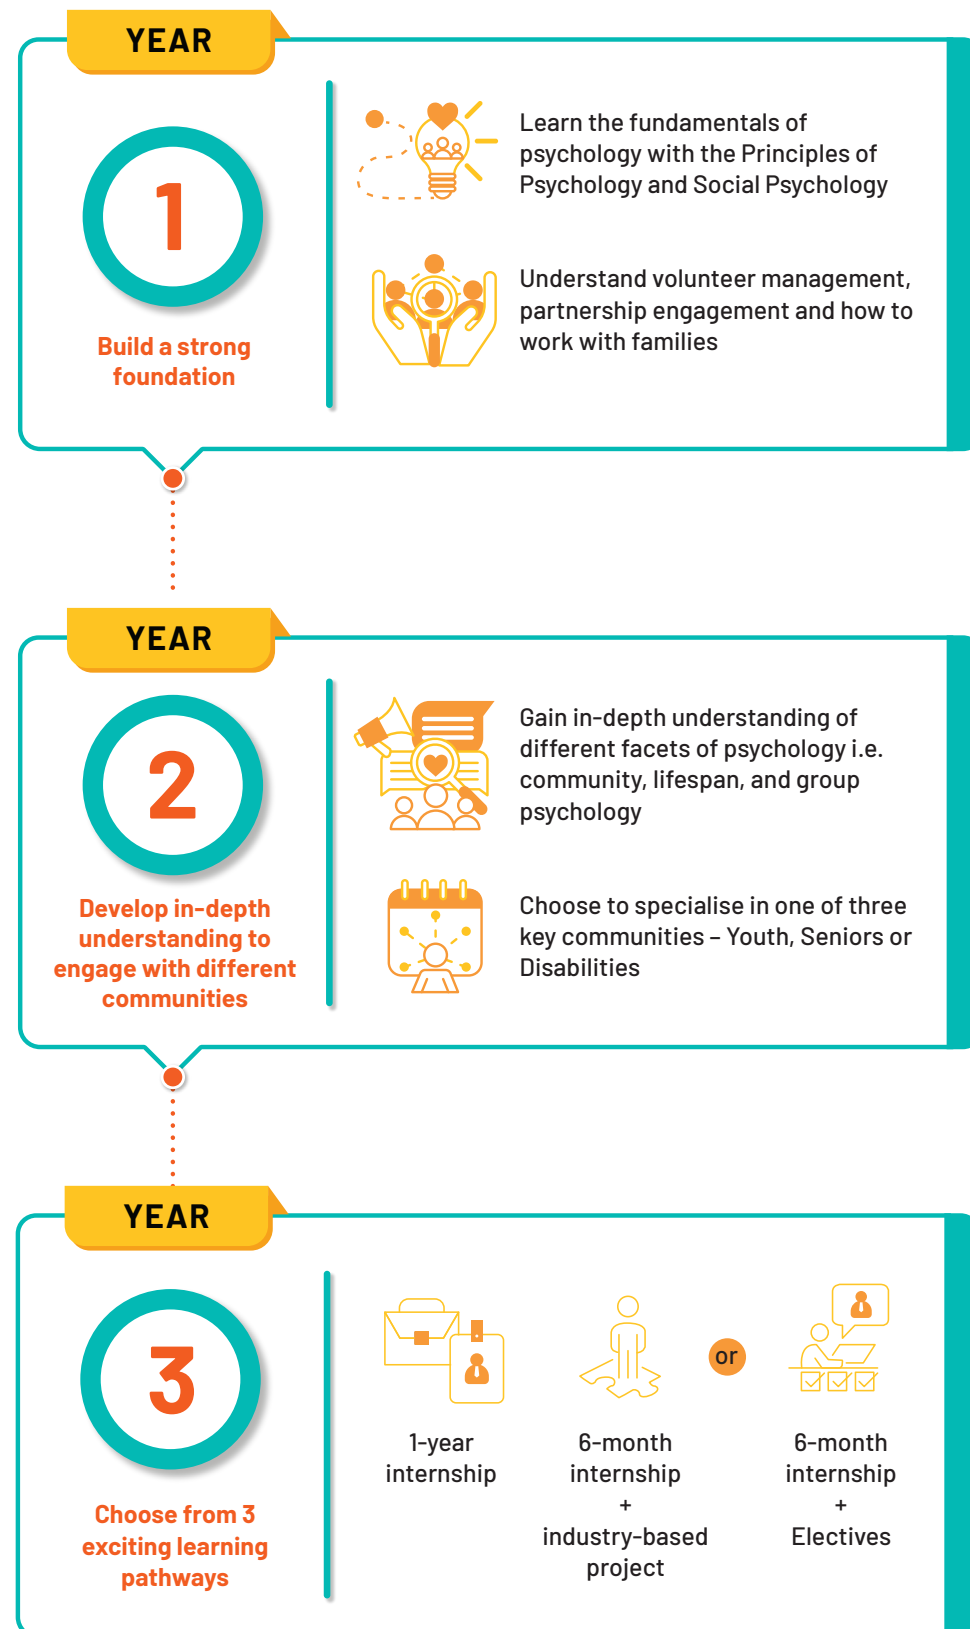

Imran Mean believes in making a difference in the community around him. This big-hearted youth founded a 380-strong volunteer group, known as the IM Volunteers Network, which focuses on welfare events such as meal distribution, fundraising and other social initiatives. The group has supported 200 events to date and now has a Malaysia branch that supports volunteering efforts across the Causeway!

Diploma in Early Childhood Development & Education

Get latest updates on course

- ▶ Experience practice-oriented training with a six-month enhanced internship programme and 2 practicum attachments to apply what you have learnt
- ▶ Expand your career options by pursuing either the Early Intervention Track or Mother Tongue Language Teaching Track (Chinese or Tamil) when you take up relevant electives*
- ▶ Enjoy full course fee sponsorship, professional development grant and monthly allowance with the ECDA Training Award

* Subject to terms and conditions

WHAT THE COURSE IS ABOUT

Love interacting with children and want to play a part in shaping their growth? Our Diploma in Early Childhood Development & Education (ECDE) is the right one for you!

This course is conducted by the National Institute of Early Childhood Development (NIEC) in collaboration with NP at the NIEC (NP) campus. The qualification is recognised by the Early Childhood Development Agency (ECDA) for graduates to be certified and practise as an early childhood educator in Singapore.

Real-world Learning

From your first year, go on attachments at preschools and get an opportunity to apply and hone your skills alongside experienced educators. You will build a strong foundation in understanding child development, early childhood care, and education for young children between the ages of 18 months and 6 years.

Continue your field practicum in your second year while learning about the holistic development of a child, as well as curriculum planning and design. Having learnt how to encourage children to be curious learners and problem solvers, you will put your skills into practice when you go on a six-month internship at a preschool in your final year.

Gain Specialised Skills

Deepen your knowledge in your area of interest with electives such as Children's Literature and Drama for Preschool Education, or take up modules in the Early Intervention track or Mother Tongue Language Teaching Track (Chinese or Tamil) in your final year. You may even choose to take up the 2D & 3D Art modules conducted at another NIEC campus*.

Excellent Prospects

Upon graduation, you will become a certified preschool educator. CULTIVATING BILINGUALISM

"My diploma in Chinese Studies provided me with linguistic versatility and allowed me to cultivate a deeper cultural understanding while sharpening my skills as a bilingual communicator, all of which have helped me achieve recognition in the industry as Wayne Emcee."

WAYNE CHEW

Chinese Studies graduate, Class of 2010

Working active as a bilingual emcee.

FINDING A STRONG VOICE

"The diploma gave me a strong foundation in understanding how we can best tackle social issues in our communities. My role ensures that I continue opening doors to opportunities for those who need it most, and helping them build their self-confidence, aspirations and networks through early career exposure."

CLARENCE CHING

Business & Social Enterprise* graduate, Class of 2015

Founder and executive director of Access Singapore.

*Renamed the Diploma in Psychology & Community Development

BUILDING A STRONG FOUNDATION

"ABM's comprehensive education not only sparked my passion for the arts, but also provided me with the necessary skills to embark on a career in the field. The course's hands-on learning activities, volunteering stints, and opportunities to curate and organise art festivals like Verve have prepared me well for a career as an arts manager."

LORETTA LIM

Arts Business Management graduate, Class of 2016

Currently working at the National Gallery Singapore and manages community and audience engagement projects.
